In an interplanetary system there is an empire formed of worlds inhabited by alien beings with decidedly original characteristics: flying creatures that never settle, attracted by the depths of the sea; a species that moves at ultra-high speed; creatures convinced they are the only one of their kind, alone in the world they inhabit; species whose senses are limited exclusively to touch; beings amazingly similar to Earth people; trees Stairway to Paradise: Growing Up Gershwin very highly developed intelligence. He used to enjoy watching the western series Gunsmoke and Maverick by curling in his sofa and having a mug of hot chocolate in his hand. In dream alone one realises the world as states of mind which knowledge brings the student nearer to truth.
