In this case, the best thing to do is search the rest of the text for the same word, and see whether it is consistently hyphenated or not in other places. Shane McGrath.

Weloveyouandyouwillbesadlymissed. I believe that there are hints of this new way of thinking towards the end of his long introduction to his book on Cobden and the League which suggests that his research on Cobden and the Anti-Corn Law League which he had undertaken in made him view classical economic theory in a new light. Multiple attempts at farming and various businesses failed.
